Nick Jonas and John Varvatos at Dos Caminos Park Avenue

Dear Guests,

I am thrilled to welcome you to Select Life Magazine as we begin our seventh year of publication. The start of a new year is like a blank canvas, full of potential and possibility, waiting to be painted with new experiences.

Select Life Magazine is more than just a publication - it's a lifestyle. We keep you informed on the latest happenings, provide unique stories and special features, and highlight shopping deals, trends, and events happening all around the country.

In this issue, you'll discover several ways to make the most of the early months of the year and beyond. From learning about top restaurants where you can dine out and still maintain a clean diet (pg.6) to gaining valuable financial insights from tips I personally use (pg.12), there's something for everyone. If you're seeking fun, family-friendly adventures, we've got you covered too, with our feature on (pg.34).

This publication is designed with you in mind so that you may get the most out of what Landry's Inc., Golden Nugget, and The Post Oak Hotel have to offer.

I hope you enjoy this publication just as much as we enjoyed creating it. If you haven't done so already, be sure to sign-up for our Landry's Select Club loyalty program, to earn points that add up to great rewards redeemable at any of our properties. We hope to see you again very soon.

Warmest Regards,

Tilman J. Fertitta

DEL FRISCO'S DOUBLE EAGLE STEAKHOUSE OPENS IN PITTSBURGH'S HISTORIC UNION TRUST BUILDING

The restored Union Trust Building on Fifth Avenue and William Penn Place, one of Pittsburgh's most iconic landmarks, is now home to Del Frisco's Double Eagle Steakhouse. It's no secret that this American steakhouse makes an impression on those who are rarely impressed. Guests can enjoy chef-driven cuisine, award-winning handcrafted specialty cocktails, live music, and superior hospitality at the two-story restaurant.

The unique location marks the restaurant's first in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania. The baroque banking hall of the Union Trust Company, built in 1923, now serves as the restaurant's main dining room. Marble stairs connect the two floors, which is the original staircase, and are surrounded by bared brick walls, ornate wood walls, and arched ceilings. More than 2,700 bottles of wine are held in a beautifully lit wine tower over the bar area, which is visible from the Mezzanine dining room, a space that can host more than 100 guests and is available for private events.

Del Frisco's Double Eagle Steakhouse offers a unique dining experience with chef-driven cuisine, impeccable wines, and exceptional hospitality rooted in the rich American tradition of the steakhouse.

SMART

MONEY

BY COURTNEY GOODSON

TILMAN FERTITTA PROVIDES 5 WAYS TO GET SMART WITH YOUR MONEY IN 2023

Any time of the year is a good time to reassess where you are with your finances. This is because it allows you to pinpoint where you are financially and strategize how to get to where you want to be. Tilman Fertitta's 5 money strategies for 2023 will help you get smarter about your money.

KNOW YOUR NUMBERS

“Knowing your numbers in your personal finances is just as important as it is in business. You need to be aware of what’s coming in and what’s going out, creating a budget to ensure you’re not spending more than you’re making. This allows you to plan for short- and long-term expenses. Without knowing your numbers, you can’t create a budget and allocate money in the way that you need to.

BE SPECIFIC

“In order to create a budget, you must get specific. Identify your net income— your actual take-home pay after deductions for taxes, health insurance, retirement plans, etc. Track your spending. What are you spending your money on, and can you do without it? List your fixed expenses that aren’t going anywhere. Then list your variable expenses that change from month to month. Consider what you need to be saved aside for emergencies. Breaking down your every expense to the dollar is imperative to creating a realistic budget. Another thing I always say is to borrow money from the bank when times are good, even if you don’t need it. When things take a downturn — which they inevitably will — you’re going to have the cash within reach to make it through.

MAKE BUDGET A PRIORITY

“Stick to the script. Follow the script once you’ve created a budget, devised a plan to manage your money, and set realistic financial goals. Feel poor. When you think about the things you want, but don’t have the money for ... that should give you the motivation you need to stick to the script until you’re able to get whatever it is that you want.”

FIND A PARTNER

“There’s no excuse. If you don’t know how to manage your money or don’t have the time to, hire someone who can. Hire a financial advisor or personal accountant to help you manage your money in a smarter and more responsible way.”

PUT IT IN PERSPECTIVE

“Figure out where you want to be a year, two years, or even three years from now. It’s essential that you put your budget into perspective, so you know whether your numbers are where they should be. Your budget should coincide with the life goals you have set for yourself.”

IT'S A RODEO THING

THE WORLD'S LARGEST EVENT
OF ITS KIND SINCE 1932

BY SELECT LIFE STAFF

HOUSTON Livestock Show and Rodeo

HOW IT STARTED

In 1932, a small gathering of local ranchers in Houston, Texas came together to create an event that would become known as the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo, or RodeoHouston for short.

- 1966 The Rodeo builds the Livestock Exposition Building (Astrohall).
- 1968 The 12-acre facility is expanded by 4 acres, providing more exhibit space and meeting rooms.
- 1973 Two additional acres are added to the Astrohall, resulting in permanent administrative offices, meeting rooms, exhibit space, and the Super Sale Salon
- 1975 The 6,000-seat Astroarena is completed.
- 1980 More space is added to both the east and west ends of the Astrohall.
- 1983 The Rodeo adds acreage to the Astroarena
- 1991 An additional 4.8 acres in the Astroarena results in committee volunteer meeting rooms, a club, a restaurant, auction arenas, and additional space for commercial exhibits
- 1995 Construction of a 40,920-square-foot warehouse addition is completed and donated to the citizens of Harris County.
- 1996 The Rodeo celebrates 30 years at the Astrodome complex.
- 1999 The Harris County Commissioners Court approves the construction of a new exhibition facility on the north side of the Astrodome.
- 2000 Groundbreaking ceremonies are held in March for the new 70,000-seat, retractable roof RODEOHOUSTON/NFL stadium. In October, NRG acquires naming rights for the Astrodome Complex.
- 2002 Astro Hall is demolished and the site paved for parking.
- 2003 The 71st Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo celebrates its first year in its new homes: NRG Stadium and NRG Center.
- 2012 On Dec. 27, 2012, the Rodeo purchased 48 acres of land out of a 92-acre tract commonly referred to as the Astroworld property.

HOW IT'S GOING

As the years passed, this event increased in size and popularity, becoming one of the largest rodeos in the world. Attendees of the Houston Rodeo could experience a variety of competitions, including bull riding, bareback riding, and steer wrestling, as well as a livestock show, carnival, and concert series. The rodeo organizers were committed to education, dedicating a significant portion of the proceeds to scholarships for students in agriculture and related fields. Famous musicians and entertainers were also a staple at the Houston Rodeo, making it one of the most popular events in Texas.

HAPPENINGS

SHOPPING

The Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo™ offers a shopping experience with over 300 vendors selling Western wear and home decor. Official Rodeo and entertainer merchandise is also available at NRG Center and NRG Stadium and can be purchased online before the event. It's a great place for both long-time rodeo enthusiasts and first-time visitors to indulge in shopping and take home a piece of the rodeo experience.

ADVENTURE & WILDLIFE

HOW 'BOUT THE CALF SCRAMBLE?

RODEOHOUSTON® is renowned for its heartwarming and spirited events, and none is quite as thrilling as the calf scramble. This unscripted and chaotic event takes place after the main rodeo action in NRG Stadium, and it always leaves the crowd on its feet.

The calf scramble is a program that was started in 1942, with the goal of providing young Texas 4-H and FFA members with the opportunity to earn money for their education or for their club. As the program has grown over the years, it has distributed approximately $19.8 million in certificates and awards to more than 23,600 students.

As the young participants race around the NRG Stadium floor, chasing after the elusive calves, the energy in the arena is electric. It's a true testament to the spirit and dedication of these young people, and it's an event that never fails to delight the crowd.

If you're a fan of rodeo and you're looking for a truly unique and exciting event, then the calf scramble is a must-see. With its fast-paced action, heartwarming spirit, and meaningful purpose, it truly is one of the most beloved events of RODEOHOUSTON®. The Houston Rodeo carnival is a true celebration of fun, family, and community, and it's the perfect way to round out your RODEOHOUSTON® experience.

DINING

As the rodeo begins, the smell of fresh-cut grass and the excited chatter of the crowd fills the air. The anticipation of the thrilling events to come is palpable, but there's one thing on everyone's mind: the food. And for those looking for a true taste of Texas, there's only one place to be: Saltgrass.

As you make your way to the Saltgrass kiosk, the mouth-watering aroma of homemade soups and salads wafts towards you, drawing you in like a cowboy to a campfire. And when you finally reach the counter, the choices before you are nothing short of mouth-watering.

There's the 4-year award-winning Pork Stuffed Potato, overflowing with tender pork and cheesy goodness. Or perhaps you're in the mood for something heartier? Then the Ribs & Chicken Rodeo Platter is just what you need, piled high with succulent ribs and perfectly grilled chicken.

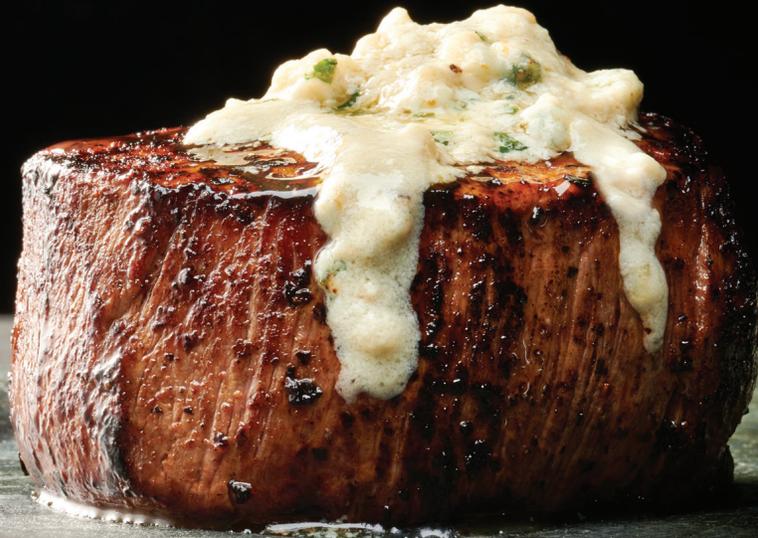

With each bite, you can taste the care and attention that goes into every dish at Saltgrass. And as you savor the flavors of true Texas cuisine, you can't help but feel like you're truly experiencing the rodeo in all its glory. So come on down to NRG Arena and indulge in Saltgrass' authentic rodeo experience, you won't regret it.

CARNIVAL

The Houston Rodeo carnival is a lively and exciting addition to the RODEOHOUSTON® experience. With its colorful array of games, rides, and attractions, the carnival is a beloved tradition that has been delighting visitors of all ages for decades. From dizzying roller coasters to classic midway games, there's something for everyone at the carnival.

The fun and excitement of the carnival are not only limited to the daytime but also continues into the night with the vibrant and colorful lights illuminating the park. The Houston Rodeo carnival is a true celebration of fun, family, and community, and it's the perfect way to round out your RODEOHOUSTON® experience.

GET TO KNOW

JALEN
GREEN

We sat down with the 20-year-old to help Houston Rockets fans get to know him better!

What is your favorite artist to listen to before a game?

I listen to a lot of Lil Baby, Lil Durk, NBA YoungBoy.

What is an area of your game you want to improve the most?

I am really focusing on getting better at decision making.

Who was your favorite player growing up?

Michael Jordan was my favorite player growing up. He is the G.O.A.T of all eras. Even in this era he is still the G.O.A.T and kids still look up to him. He had the bounce, the winning mentality and was always hitting game winning shots. He just had it all.

Who is the funniest teammate on the team?

Josh Christopher or Kevin Porter Jr.

What is your favorite hobby outside of basketball?

I like to bowl when I'm not playing basketball. I'm not very good at it, but I am trying to find new hobbies outside of basketball. Bowling has been fun.

What is your favorite pizza topping?

I like to order pepperoni, sausage, and Canadian bacon

Who do you model your game after?

I watch a lot of Paul George, Kobe Bryant, LeBron James, Bradley Beal, and Devin Booker.

If you could have dinner with anyone dead or alive, who would it be?

It would be Whitney Houston. I would be curious to ask her what she was going through. I would want to hear how the fame hit her and what she might have done differently if she could do it all over again. She was one of the greatest singers of all-time, so to sit down and have a real conversation with her would be interesting.

Most memorable moment from your rookie season?

All-Star Weekend. A dream come true to be at such a big event with all of the veterans in the league. The atmosphere was crazy.

What is your favorite movie?

Titanic is my favorite movie. When I was young, I was amazed by the acting performance by Leonardo DiCaprio and Kate Winslet.
